Hello,

I hope this email finds you well and that you both had a nice holiday weekend.

Thank you, too, for all your help over the last few weeks.

I am looking for information relative to both Residential and Business parking permits and City-issued Employee Parking permits.

For the sake of formality, I'll word it as a Sunshine Request. Please see below.

Thank you so much.

Sincerely,

Lauren Trager

To Whom It May Concern:

Pursuant to state and federal freedom of information legislation, I am requesting the following:

- 1.) A list of all Residential and Business parking permits
  - a. The person or entity to whom or which the permit is issued
  - b. The date the permit was issued
  - c. The amount paid for the permit
  - d. Renewal dates and amount paid for the renewal, if applicable
- 2.) A list of all City-issued employee parking permits
  - a. The person to whom the permit was issued
  - b. The date the permit was issued
  - c. The amount paid for the permit
  - d. Renewal dates and amount paid for the renewal, if applicable

Please let me know if you have any questions or concern. Thank you so much.

Sincerely,

Lauren Trager

Lauren- In regards to your Sunshine Law request pertaining to permits:

Request No. 1- We are not in possession of documents in response to your inquiry about Residential parking permits. We do not issue or manage these permits. I would refer you to the Board of Alderman. In response to your inquiry about Business permits, I have attached a spreadsheet outlining our current permits.

Request No. 2- I have attached responsive documents that include parking placards issued to the Treasurer's Office staff, Board of Elections Commissioners, STL Development Corp, and Board of Aldermen. These placards are issued yearly and without a fee. Additional parking exemptions are granted to city departments by ordinance. For example, Ordinance 66788, section 109.10 authorizes employees of the Building Division to park at a parking meter without the payment of fees by displaying a placard. We do not issue or manage any city department placards.

There is no fee associated with this request.

Best regards,
