Yes, we are available at that time. I'm curious if this is in regards to our stand alone proposal, or the proposal submitted by Hudson and Associates?

Following is the invitation information for the Webex session I scheduled for this. You can just follow the Join by Phone instructions for our conference call. The Join the Meeting link is to activate an online screen sharing type meeting, that I do not believe is required. We can always activate that function if needed. Let me know if you have any questions regarding this.

AIMS (EDC Corporation) invites you to join this Webex meeting.
